

JOHN P. BRACH, MD

JBRACH@FOURCORNERSEYE.COM

3810 N. EARL ST. • DURANGO, CO 81301 • 970-749-7067

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2013 – present Four Corners Eye Clinic Durango, CO

Comprehensive Ophthalmologist

- Medical and surgical management of patients with ophthalmic disease and/or those with ophthalmic complications of systemic disease
- Advanced cataract surgery utilizing Toric and Multifocal Intraocular lenses

2010 - 2013 Mayo Clinic Dept. of Ophthalmology Rochester, MN

Chief Resident, Resident

- Supervising/conducting medical and surgical management of patients seen on Comprehensive Ophthalmology Service, subspecialty rotations
- Completion date: June 30, 2013

2009 - 2010 The Methodist Hospital Houston, TX

Transitional Resident – Weill Cornell Medical College

- General Internal Medicine training
- Elective experience in Anesthesia, Dermatologic Surgery, Ophthalmic Pathology

EDUCATION

2005 - 2009 The University of Texas Medical Branch Galveston, TX

- Doctor of Medicine
- Magna cum laude
- Alpha Omega Alpha member, elected as a Junior (2008 - present)

1998 - 2003 Colorado State University Fort Collins, CO

- Bachelor of Science, Electrical Engineering (2002)
- Biomedical Engineering Certificate (2003)
- Eta Kappa Nu (HKN) Distinguished Service Award (2002)

CURRENT LICENSURE

Licensed to practice medicine in the state of Colorado

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- American Academy of Ophthalmology
- Diplomate of American Board of Ophthalmology
- American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgeons

RESEARCH

Evaluating Outcomes of Blepharoptosis Surgery Using Validated Response Measures, Poster,

ARVO, May 2012
A Novel Approach for Detection and Prevention of Laser Injury in Ocular Tissue, UTMB, 2007

PRESENTATIONS

Rocky Mountain Sports Medicine Symposium, Durango, CO, Sports and Ocular Injuries, August 9, 2014

Biennial Navajo Area Optometry Meeting, Durango, CO, *Review of Pathology of the Anterior
Segment*, May 1, 2015

Low Vision Expo, Durango, CO, Low Vision and the Anterior Segment, September 16, 2015

Human Anatomy (Bio 233), Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO, Eye Anatomy Correlates, November 16, 2015